TESTIMONIAL OF RESPECT.

At a meeting of the Managers of the Presbyterian Home for Widows and Single Women, December 8th, 1874, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, 1. That in the removal by death of our beloved friend and faithful fellow-worker, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Riee, this Board has sustained a heavy and almost irreparable loss.

Resolved, 2. That in the discharge of her duties as Recording Secretary of this Society, her fidelity and efficiency were worthy of the highest commendation.

Resolved, 3. That her zeal in assisting to inaugurate, as well as energy in bringing to a consummation this home for the "bereaved and lonely, kindred of Christ," together with the benignant spirit she ever manifested as an officer of the Board, are among the most precious memories of our history as an organization.

Resolved, 4. That in this, the first death of a manager of our Board, we will endeavor to hear the voice of the Master, saying, "Work while it is called day, for the night cometh when no man can work," and that thus may be verified in the case of our sister, that "though dead, she yet speaketh."

Resolved, 5. That we tender to the family of our deceased sister our warmest love and sympathy, trusting that they may hear Him who, of old, said, "It is I, be not afraid;" and that thus, with the "everlasting arms underneath," and incited by the hallowed memory of the beloved wife and mother, following her as she followed Christ, they may, when the day breaks and the shadows flee away, form a reunited family in that land where there is no more death, "where the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne, shall feed them and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters, and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes."

Resolved, 6. That a copy of the above be sent to the family of the deceased, and published in the Presbyterian.

MARY G. P. FIELD,
President.

FANNIE H. CARR,
Cor. Secretary.

BY - LAWS

AND

RULES FOR THE BOARD OF MANAGERS.

I. The Managers shall meet on the second Tuesday of each month, at such time and place as they shall appoint.

II. Seven of the Managers shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business—except the election of Managers.

III. Every meeting shall be opened with reading a portion of Scripture, succeeded by a prayer.

IV. All reports of committees shall be in writing.

V. The President shall call extra meetings when she may think proper, or when three members unite in a request for that purpose.

VI. The business of each stated meeting shall commence with calling the roll, followed by the Secretary reading the minutes of the preceding meeting, the Treasurer's report, and the reports of committees, which, if not presented, must be asked for by the presiding officer. The unfinished business shall then be called up, and any new business brought forward. The weekly committees for the ensuing month shall be named, and the orders on the Treasurer voted.

VII. After the annual meeting the standing committees shall be appointed, viz., The weekly committees for the year, which shall be inserted by the Secretary in the minute-book of the Committee; the Purchasing Committee; the Committee for Receiving Applications for Admission; the Committee on Accounts, and such other committees as may be required.

VIII. The Visiting Committee shall visit the Home not less than twice during the week; they shall endeavor to be present at one of the meals, shall make themselves acquainted with the situation and wants of the inmates generally, direct the concerns of the family, and report their observations in a minute-book kept for the purpose, which book shall be passed over to the members of the succeeding committee.

IX. The Purchasing Committee shall keep a cash-book, in which all receipts and expenditures shall be entered, a report of which in detail must be submitted to the Board monthly at its stated meeting. They shall estimate the amount needed for the month, and present the same to the Board for an appropriation, to be drawn from the Treasurer as required.

X. The Committee on Religious Services shall consist of ten or more members, two of whom shall be appointed monthly, whose duty shall be to see that the Home is duly supplied with the preaching of the Gospel, and who shall have a general supervision of the religious services.

The committee shall have the Home supplied with preaching once or twice on the Sabbath day, also once or oftener on week evenings, as circumstances will permit.

The committee shall give verbal instructions to the Matron how to act in relation to this subject in the absence of the committee.

XI. A standing Committee on Printing shall be appointed by the Society, to whom all matter requisite to be printed shall be referred.

COMMITTEE ON ADMISSIONS.

The Board shall appoint five of their number to receive applicants for admission.

They shall inquire into the character and circumstances of those making application, see that they have the necessary certificates from their pastor or session, are able to pay their own board, or provide some responsible persons who will pay it for them, or will pay one hundred and fifty dollars admission fee.

They shall require each applicant to sign a paper, pledging herself to abide by the rules of the Home.

The committee shall then refer the case to the Board, which shall, in all cases, reserve the right to decide upon the admission of applicants.

THE MATRON.

The Matron, under the direction of the Board, shall have charge of the house, shall enforce the rules of the Managers, prescribe the hours of meals, be present at, and ask a blessing upon them.

She shall keep a book, which shall contain a list of the furniture, linen, etc., belonging to the Home; also presents made to the inmates or the Institution, and the names of the donors.

She shall render a monthly account to the Treasurer of all money intrusted to and expended by her.

She shall grant all leave of absence, inquire where the inmate intends staying, and the probable length of her visit.

She shall make out a requisition of the needed supplies, and submit the same to the Purchasing Committee.

INMATES.

Applicants for admission must be residents of the State of Pennsylvania; have been members of the Presbyterian Church, in some one of its branches, for three years, and bring satisfactory proof of this by letter from their pastor or session.

They must pay the sum of $150, or sign an agreement to pay $3 per week, or provide some responsible person to sign such agreement for them; they must also sign a paper binding themselves to submit to the Matron, and abide by the rules of the house.

Those who have any property are required to secure the same to the Institution before they are admitted; in case of obtaining property after their admission, if they remain in the Home, it will also be necessary to make it over to the Institution.

ANNUAL REPORT.

RATHER more than two years since, a few ladies, members of the Presbyterian Church, met in response to a call from two prominent workers of our denomination to consider the propriety of erecting a home for the indigent aged women of our own household of faith.

As we sat in an upper room of the old Publication House in Philadelphia and listened to the statement that Mrs. Ann Gray Thomas was willing to give the ground, provided the requisite sum could be raised for building purposes, as we remembered the manifold and imperative benevolent operations of our church, appealing for material aid, we confess that the prospect of so desirable a consummation seemed very remote. But lo, little more than two years have elapsed, and what do we see? A large and commodious edifice, admirably planned and built in the best manner, with accommodations for some eighty inmates, tastefully though not extravagantly furnished, and now ready for occupancy.

At a meeting held in September it was resolved to open the house on the last Thursday of October. This being the case the ladies went to work with a will, and accordingly the house was opened on the day appointed.

In the matter of furnishing, the false economy which purchases goods merely because they are cheap was eschewed, and the wiser plan of procuring a good article substituted.

Inasmuch as uniformity of style was desirable, in addition to the fact that money was saved by buying at wholesale, a general fund to defray this expense was created from the sums given for this purpose by the different churches and individuals.

The 29th of October will long be remembered as a red-letter day in the annals of Presbyterianism in Philadelphia. Hours before the appointed time hundreds of people could have been seen wending their way toward the Home. To say that the house was packed would be but to record the simple truth; there was scarcely a Presbyterian church in Philadelphia not represented. As one stood on the main staircase and gazed at the sea of upturned faces, he wondered not at the eloquence of the different speakers. Surely that would have been a cold heart which could have beheld unmoved the result of two years of toil, sacrifice, and fervent prayer. Not the least interesting feature of the occasion consisted in the fact that the lady who gave the ground, was permitted to be present and witness this consummation of her most cherished desire.

In reviewing the year's labors we find that the most prominent event, aside from the formal opening of the house, was the Festival which was held in June last. On this occasion the ladies worked with extraordinary zeal, and their efforts were rewarded by crowds of visitors who expressed great satisfaction. The net receipts of the Festival were $3748.09. This enabled the managers to liquidate some very pressing debts against the Institution.

At the present time twenty-five women have been accepted as suitable subjects for the Home, and a few days (Providence permitting) will find them inmates of the same. Before dismissing the item of the reception of applicants, it would be well perhaps to have it clearly understood that our capacity is limited to eighty persons. In order that the benefits of the Home may be extended to those whose need is the greatest, a committee has been appointed to examine carefully each case applying. Inasmuch as inspiration warns us that he that girdeth on his harness should not boast himself as he that putteth it off, we feel that whilst it gives us unfeigned pleasure to record the success that has hitherto attended our enterprise, a great work in the way of establishing the working of the Institution on a permanent basis, still remains to be done; and this brings us to the subject of endowment.

The sum of $3000 entitles the donor to nominate a perpetual inmate. The managers trust that this fact needs only to be thoroughly understood in order to induce liberal hearts to move in this direction. On every hand there are aged women of our church dragging out miserable lives in the midst of the most uncomfortable surroundings, earnestly beseeching us for a home. Shall not their hoary hairs and faltering footsteps plead with an eloquence that shall move the coldest heart? And when in addition to these potent arguments it is remembered who it is that said, "Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of the least of these my brethren ye did it unto me," the managers of the Presbyterian Home feel assured that in pressing this claim they will meet with a hearty response.

One fact which we desire to record before closing our report is, that faith in God has been a marked feature in the whole history of our enterprise. In consequence of the stringency of the money market, there was a time during the past year when our affairs looked quite gloomy; a manager suggested the propriety of importunate, believing prayer with special reference to our immediate needs. The next month found us in funds, and matters considerably improved.

With a firm faith that the same God who put it into the hearts of its projectors to inaugurate the movement and who has hitherto so signally blessed us will continue to favor us, we gratefully submit this our Third Annual Report.

Corresponding Secretary.
